01 Who is Onit?

Onit is a leading legal technology company, headquartered in Houston, TX.

- Founded in 2011, Onit is a global leader of enterprise workflow solutions including contract lifecycle management and enterprise legal management.
- SimpleLegal was founded in 2013 and is a leading provider of spend, matter, and vendor management software. Onit acquired SimpleLegal in 2019.

02 Why is Onit acquiring SecureDocs?

By acquiring SecureDocs and its suite of products – including SecureDocs Virtual Data Room, ContractWorks Contract Management Software, and ReadySign Electronic Signature Software – Onit strengthens its position as a modern-day leading CLM provider.

- The move also expands Onit's market reach and diversifies its product portfolio to include solutions for enterprises and mid-sized companies.

03 Why is SecureDocs integrating with SimpleLegal?

SecureDocs and SimpleLegal have a lot in common, starting with an unwavering commitment to our customers.

- Like SecureDocs, SimpleLegal creates simple, intuitive software to support legal professionals.
- By working together, we will be able to provide even greater value to our customers thanks to a complementary offering of products and services.
- With the addition of SecureDocs, companies of all sizes will now have a more comprehensive range of solutions when looking to modernize and streamline business processes.

04 What does this mean for SecureDocs?

We are incredibly excited about this significant step in our company history and are looking forward to this next chapter.

- Through this unique opportunity to move forward with our existing team as part of the Onit family, we will continue to create simple, intuitive software and provide industry-leading support and service to current and future customers.
- As part of the Onit family of products, we'll be able to offer additional resources and solutions to our customers that help improve efficiency and free up time to focus on high-value work.

05 What does it mean for ReadySign customers?

Your experience as a ReadySign customer will not change.

- As far as using your ReadySign account and working with our 24/7 support team, it's business as usual.
